Y Ahora, ¿Quién Podrá Defenderme? Addressing Day-To-Day Wage and Hour Headaches

Complying with Puerto Rico and federal wage and hour laws can be a headache for human resources personnel. In this session, we will discuss common day-to-day situations that arise in the workplace and their legal implications. Following a question-and-answer format, we will tackle topics, such as considerations when an employer overpays an employee, how to calculate vacation accrual penalties, and determining the regular rate of pay to compensate overtime, seventh days, meal period penalties and statutory paid leaves when shift differentials apply.

Speakers:

Anabel Rodríguez, Daniel Quiles

12:20 p.m. – 1:35 p.m.

Lunch Presentation: Do You Have Burning (Labor and Employment) Questions? We've Got Answers!
