Overview

Alexandra Volpicelli focuses her practice on labor and employment law matters.

Prior to joining Littler, she worked at another national labor and employment law firm. Additionally, Alexandra interned with the in-house legal team of an international manufacturing and distributing nutritional supplement company. She handled a range of legal issues affecting the company, among them employment and regulatory matters.

During law school, Alexandra obtained a concentration in intellectual property law. She was elected as an IP Section Reporter at the California Lawyers Association. She also was the Senior Editor of the Business Law Journal and gained valuable experience working for the Chancellor and Dean as his research assistant. Additionally, she was a teaching assistant for legal research and writing.
