Overview

Amy Chestnut-Dodds is Counsel on the Class Action Counsel team and is based in Idaho. As a research attorney for class, collective, mass, and representative actions, she performs multijurisdictional legal research and analyzes issues on a variety of legal topics and writes concise, objective summaries of complex legal issues to help inform critical strategic decisions.

Prior to joining Littler in 2017, Amy served as general counsel/vice president human resources for a company with employees throughout the Pacific Northwest, and she practiced with a firm concentrating in employment law. Before focusing on employment law, Amy's practice included complex environmental litigation and water rights law.
