Workers' Compensation

Overview

Bethany Ingle focuses her practice on representing employers in workers' compensation matters. She has experience in advising clients on all aspects of workers' compensation claims including initial determinations of compensability, termination of benefits, settlement analysis and negotiation, closure strategies for old or troublesome claims, statutory interpretation, compensability of medical expenses, and vocational rehabilitation issues.

Prior to joining Littler, Bethany worked at another law firm in Virginia, where she also represented employers in workers' compensation claims. Prior to that, she served as an assistant public defender in Newport News, Virginia.
