Overview

Isabelle Kannen advises clients on termination law and individual employment law, as well as on drafting and reviewing contracts. Thanks to her structured and focused way of working, she is able to grasp even complex issues efficiently and develop pragmatic solutions.

Isabelle has gained several years of experience as a lawyer in employment law boutiques and as an in-house lawyer in a health tech company. She completed a legal traineeship at the Berlin Court of Appeal with stations in the legal department of a listed e-commerce group, an international commercial law firm, and in a federal ministry. She completed her second state law examination in 2021.
