Overview

Maximilian Heite advises clients on individual and collective employment law issues. His determined and structured way of working is based on clear organization and careful preparation. As a former competitive athlete and passionate strength athlete, he brings tact and determination to his mandates. He knows from experience that the simplest solutions are often the best. That's why he looks at every situation with a clear head and from different angles.

He has completed legal traineeships at Nestlé Deutschland AG, Personal Labor Relations, Noerr Partnergesellschaft mbB, Employment & Pension practice group, Wiesbaden Regional Court, and at the Higher Regional Court of Frankfurt am Main. Maximilian completed the first state examination in law in Jena and the second state examination in Wiesbaden.
