Overview

Sharon Sieber is Class Action Special Counsel and is based in New York. As Team Lead for the Class Action Discovery team, Sharon assists in the hiring and training of new Discovery Counsel, as well as the ongoing management and supervision of the Discovery team. She also helped develop best practices and processes in class, collective, representative, and mass arbitration discovery. Sharon partners with local Littler litigation teams in executing a discovery strategy for employment class, collective, mass, and representative actions, including PAGA. She drafts discovery requests and responses, evaluates the opposing party's requests and responses, reviews documents and oversees document productions, conducts discovery-related legal research and briefing, and prepares for depositions.

Prior to joining Littler, Sharon was affiliated with global law firms in Atlanta and New York, which afforded her the opportunity to participate actively in the discovery, summary judgment, and class certification processes. She has significant experience in the preparation and management of multi-plaintiff wage and hour litigation as well as large-scale racial discrimination suits.
