Overview

As a member of the Littler CaseSmart – Charges™ team and based in Massachusetts, Laura A. Goldstein is responsible for handling charges from investigation to conclusion. She works on client-dedicated service teams, focusing on handling administrative agency charges. She investigates charge allegations, reviews pertinent documents, interviews key witnesses, and provides clients an assessment of the risks associated with the charge. In partnership with the client, she defends the charge by drafting persuasive position statements and responses to the agency's requests for information.

Prior to joining Littler, Laura represented clients in employment matters for over 25 years. She provided comprehensive and strategic advice in the settlement and litigation of state and federal court and administrative matters including discrimination, wage and hour, contractual, and workers' compensation matters. Laura also has extensive experience in preparing, reviewing, and negotiating employment and separation agreements, preparing and reviewing employment handbooks and policies, conducting workplace investigations and training, and advising employers regarding employment law compliance.
