Overview

Philipp Meese supports companies and their executive bodies in all matters of individual and collective employment law. He also advises executives and other managers regarding legal issues. His work is focused on providing ongoing advisory services and representation in court for companies with national and international operations.

Before joining vangard, Philipp worked for a boutique employment law firm, was admitted to the bar in 2009 and has been a specialized attorney (Fachanwalt) for employment law in Germany since 2012. Philipp regularly publishes articles in the Personal-Lexicon of the Beck-Personal-Portals, published by C. H. Beck Verlag.
